Want a Humane Society.

Some of our citizens have been interesting themselves in the matter of organizing a branch of the humane society in this city, but as yet nothing very definite has been done along this line. There are a number in this city who think that a humane society should be organized and all that is needed is some person to take the initiative in the matter. There are plenty who would join and there are many cases where an institution of this sort could do good work and the Tribune would lend its hearty support to such an organization.

SAW THE PRESIDENT.

George Huntington Tells of the Arrival of President Roosevelt at Panama.

La Boca, Nov. 15, 1906. We were at the La Boca wharf at 11 o'clock today rubbering for the president's special. The Pacific mail steamer Newport was lying alongside the wharf and as we stood looking about the port of the steamer made his appearance and commenced rattling on his breakfast gong. Now the rattling of a breakfast gong will bring almost anything, and sure enough this one brought in Roosevelt's special. The observation cars La France and Republic of Panama were ahead of the engine and President Roosevelt was on the forward platform viewing the La Boca scenery. The cars stopped at the Bolivar landing and the president alighted and assisted Mrs. Roosevelt down, they and their party going at once aboard the tug Bolivar for an inspection of the bay and canal. As the tug swung out and turned down the bay we went to our breakfast.

After satisfying the inner man we went to the La Boca post office, where we arrived about twelve o'clock, just as the Bolivar was making a landing at the wharf. The president's party again boarded the special train which pulled up to the postoffice and stopped and the party alighted and headed for the Gold Mesa for luncheon. Now great preparations had been made for the Roosevelt party for luncheon at the new Rivoli hotel at Ancon, but as the president has a way of making schedules of his own, the La Boca Mesa had to exert itself to do justice to the occasion. He took a look thru the kitchen as soon as he could get to it, as he wanted to know for himself what condition it was in. It was probably in pretty good condition for there had been plenty of scrubbing and scouring there for the past four or five days and the chances are that they were prepared for just such a action. Most of the white population of La Boca were standing around the postoffice discussing the question as to whether the president would be headed such a meal as they had been partaking of, but all agreed that the meal they had just partaken of was of a good grade.

I heard one man wondering aloud if the president would get and if that thought that looked as if it had been eaten before, and if so, whether his teeth would stand it or not.

At about one o'clock the party came out of the hotel and as they passed the postoffice three cheers were given for Mr. Roosevelt. (He would have needed them if an average meal had been headed him). He raised his Panama hat and said he was happy to meet us, and three cheers were given for Mr. Gorg, our division engineer, (not on account of his good looks, but because we like him). The party then boarded the train and we raised our lids and bid them good by, and the president answered good by and good luck, and the train pulled out.

George M. Huntington.

Logging at Milladore.

Edward Lynch has again started logging operations at Milladore, and expects that before the season is over he will have in the neighborhood of two million feet banked at his mill at that point. Of this amount he will probably get out a million or more and the remainder will be brought in by the settlers in that section. Mr. Lynch had expected to discontinue operations in that section but during the past fall he secured a tract of land in Marathon county that is only about three and one half miles from his mill, and he expects that this will enable him to cut about five million feet before he is thru with the work.

Searching for Lost Boys.

Chief of Police Gibson received a letter from the chief of police at Sandusky, Ohio, on Saturday containing the description of two boys, Joseph Wirth and Willie Missig, who have been missing from their home in that city since July 18th, 1899. The boys were ten and eleven years old when they were either kidnapped or ran away from home, and the parents are making a last effort to find them. The boys would now be 16 and 17 years of age. The parents hope by this method to get some information concerning the boys.

Gave a Linen Shower.

A linen shower was given Miss Martha Daly last Thursday evening at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Louis Akey. About twenty-five friends were present and the evening was spent in playing games. Miss Daly was showered with many beautiful and useful presents. Those present spent a very enjoyable evening.

New Meat Market.

Stewart and Warner, who have been fixing up the building on the corner of Second and Grand Avenues for some time past for a meat market, opened their shop for business on Saturday. They have everything finished up in the latest style and have a very neat and inviting place.

The Income Tax.

During the past year County Treasurer Bean reports that the sum of $3,581.63 has been paid into the state treasury by Wood county as the income tax. This sum is exclusive of the five per cent retained by the county.

The Charity Ball.

The Grand Rapids Lodge of Elks last week it was decided to leave the affair Charity Ball at the opera house in this city on Friday evening, Nov. 30th, and the public is given a cordial invitation to attend.

Most of the people who have been approached on the subject have given the affair encouragement, and it is to be hoped that others who have not been seen will not feel offended but come right to the front and ante up a two spot for the good of mankind.

The ball is not given for the benefit of the Elks, but is for the purpose of establishing a fund for the relief of the needy ones of the city who are deserving of aid. None of the money taken in goes into the treasury of the Elks, but it is kept in a separate fund to be used upon the application of some reliable party. Last year the Elks cleared about one hundred dollars, or the greater part of it was dispensed about the city where the committee thought it would do the most good, and the same course will be pursued this year.

The advance sale of tickets has been good and as the opera house has been donated for the occasion as well as the services of the musicians, the chances are that there will be a good crowd in attendance and that a goodly sum will be cleared.

The Eva Bartlett Macey Company.

This excellent company will fill its date on the Popular Entertainment Course one week from Friday evening, Dec. 7. Secure your reserved seats at Daly's next Saturday a. m. or as soon after as possible. Wm. Hawley Smith will fill his date Dec. 14.

There is a great feast in store for all lovers of fine music with the Eva Bartlett Macey Co. Good music is a great educator. If you have not a season ticket get a single ticket and hear these matchless artists.

Miss Macey has established for herself a national reputation by the superiority of her work. She is one of the few stars who can be placed at the head of a company of real artists and maintain her leadership. For three seasons she headed a company under the Redpath Bureau management and now enters upon her third season for the Mutual Bureau and the New Dixie.

The Macon Beacon, Macon, Mississippi:—Miss Macey's recitations were well done; her readings were admirable, and her banjo playing beyond compare.

Hugo Hjerstedt was born in Sweden and studied violin for a number of years in Europe, three years being spent with the famous teacher, Max Greenberg, of Berlin. On coming to this country he continued his work with Mr. Herbert Butler. He was the winner of the gold medal last year in the American Conservatory. He has appeared in concerts both in Europe and America with pronounced success and bids fair to become one of the great violinists of the country.

"The Daily News," England.—The talented harpist, H. J. Williams, winner of harp competition at the Royal National Eisteddfod at the age of 17 years, has carried off no fewer than nine prizes, including the Grand gold medal at Cardiff, 1899. He has also had the honor of playing before the Prince and Princess of Wales. The evening of the gold medal victory he and his tutor were met at the station by the town brass band and about one thousand of the inhabitants. The young harpist was cheered and carried in triumph for two hours and a half.

Made a Long Trip.

Some three weeks ago, says the Marshfield News, Fred Barli purchased a hound from a party in Wautoma. For several days after his arrival here he was kept on a chain, but the animal was uneasy and did not seem to take kindly to his new home. His journey was made to Marshfield over the Wisconsin Central road in an express car. After being chained for several days he was given his freedom. A week ago last Sunday at evening time he was missed. A week later a letter was received from his former owner informing Fred that the dog had arrived at Wautoma the Monday night following his disappearance from Marshfield. Wautoma is in Washburn county, a long way from Marshfield and across a country never before traversed by the animal. The instinct of a dumb brute is truly wonderful.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Seventeen Day Old Baby Dies.

Will Improve Poor Farm.

At the meeting of the county board last week it was decided to leave the poor farm where it is now located and to appropriate the sum of $1500 to improve the buildings on the place.

It has been the intention of the board for some time past to move the location of the poor farm to some other part of the county and the location of the place where it is now located, everything being neat and clean, and there being an abundance of room for the college with a possibility of increasing the space if necessary.

A program of music had been arranged for the opening, there being both vocal and instrumental selections and light refreshments were served. E. P. Ayin and T. W. Bracau each gave a short address to those assembled and spoke of the highest terms and told of the advantages to be gained by the existence of such a school in our community. Our citizens are certainly fortunate in having such a man as Mr. Hayward in our midst. From the beginning he has made a success of the business college and it seems to be his effort to start his graduates out in the best manner possible, and there seems to be no reason to doubt that the future of the college will be even more successful than has been the past.

Connections Knocked Out.

Owing to a change of time on the Wisconsin Central road the connections that have heretofore existed between the Green Bay and Western and the Wisconsin Central have been knocked out and it will be no longer possible to take the Green Bay train out of here and connect with the Central at Amherst Junction going south. The Central train will pass thru the junction at 3:02, while the Green Bay train does not reach there until 3:40. The change goes into effect on Monday next, December 3rd.

The fact of this connection being discontinued will be quite a disappointment to a large number of the traveling public as many took advantage of the connection to go south by this route. It may be that the time on the Green Bay and Western will be changed so that the connection will be possible just the same, but nothing definite can be said along this line at the present time.

Daly-Pasano.

This Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at the Catholic church a very pretty wedding took place. The parties united being Miss Martha Daly eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Daly and Chas. Pasano of this city.

Miss Martha Daly is one of Grand Rapids' bright and talented young ladies and has a host of friends. Mr. Pasano is an energetic young man and has made Grand Rapids his home the greater part of his years.

An elaborate dinner will be served at the home of the bride's parents for a large number of relatives and a few intimate friends. They will go to housekeeping in Port Edwards where a beautiful little cottage has been prepared for them. We wish success and happiness beyond measure to both of those young people for all their years to come.

Will Commence in December.

The members of the Grand Rapids Band have received word from Prof. Bliss to the effect that he will arrive here about the first of December to take charge of the band and get things in readiness for the summer season.

The boys would like every person in town who thinks he can play a band instrument would like to learn to play to show up at the band room and join the organization, as they want to turn out about twenty-five men when the season opens. Mr. Bliss is a first class instructor and has led some of the best musical organizations in the country and if the people will take an interest in the matter there is no reason why we should not have a band in this city that the citizens will be proud of.

Death of John Stamm.

John Stamm, one of the old settlers of this city, died on Friday evening from stomach trouble, after an illness extending over several months. Deceased was seventy years of age and was a native of Germany, but has made his home in this city during the past twenty-six years.

He is survived by his wife and six children, the latter being Charles and Andrew Stamm who live in the state of Idaho, William, Edward and Fred of this city, and Mrs. R. Peckinpah of Green Bay.

The funeral was held on Monday from the German Lutheran church. Rev. Maack officiating, the remains being interred in Forest Hill cemetery.

Many Attend Basket Ball Game.

A large crowd of young people from this city drove to Nekosia last Friday night to attend the basket-ball game between the Nekosia and local boys, the score being 12 to 20 in favor of the Nekosia boys. The local team was not the regular team but a pick-up team that had had no practice and therefore were not so contentable for playing as poorly as they did. A dance was given after the game and the young people report a very good time.

Mrs. E. W. Ellis entertained the ladies of the Congregational church society on Wednesday afternoon at her home on High street. There was a large attendance and a good time was reported by those present.

Business College Opening.

Prof. Hayward, assisted by the students and graduates of the Business college, gave a reception at the new rooms of that institution on Friday evening, and a large number of people took advantage of the opportunity to look over the place and see what was going to be offered. The Grand Rapids Business college now has very nice rooms in its new location, everything being neat and clean, and there being an abundance of room for the college with a possibility of increasing the space if necessary.

A program of music had been arranged for the opening, there being both vocal and instrumental selections and light refreshments were served. E. P. Ayin and T. W. Bracau each gave a short address to those assembled and spoke of the highest terms and told of the advantages to be gained by the existence of such a school in our community.

From the beginning he has made a success of the business college and it seems to be his effort to start his graduates out in the best manner possible, and there seems to be no reason to doubt that the future of the college will be even more successful than has been the past.

Want a County Asylum.

At the meeting of the county board last week the matter of establishing an insane asylum in Wood county for the purpose of taking care of the insane of the county right here at home was brought up and discussed. It was the opinion of a number of the board that the county could take care of its own insane at a less cost than is now being paid for same to state institutions, and this was the reason it was proposed to establish one in this county. In order to investigate the matter properly a committee was appointed to correspond and visit at other institutions of this sort with a view to finding out all there was to be known on the subject. The committee appointed for this purpose consisted of Gen. W. Brown of Pittsville, E. M. Deuling of Marshfield and George T. Rowland of this city.

Joseph De Grasse in the "Merchant of Venice."

Seasonably popular is the production of "The Merchant of Venice" which is to be presented in this city on Saturday, Dec. 1st, matinee and night, under the personal direction of Joseph De Grasse, whose long experience in the field of legitimate productions has made him a master of the art. In the person of Mr. De Grasse, one of our most interesting and promising young players, the theatre patrons of this city will find "Shylock" who is worthy of their every consideration. His farcical characterization of this powerful role is a treat and press and public have united in proclaiming him one of the most finished players of the age. The supporting company is equally balanced and the attraction will be one of the best to be seen here this season. Seats on sale Saturday.

Union Services.

Union Thanksgiving services at the Methodist church Thursday evening, Nov. 29th, will preach the sermon. The Baptist church will have charge of the service and hold it in this church as their home and finished.

Plans of houses for sale, weights about 100 lbs. See N. H. Robinson, agent.

A South Bend Watch
Frozen in Ice
Keeps Perfect Time.

South Bend Watches are accurate to the minutest fraction of a second. They are not affected by heat or cold; you might freeze a South Bend Watch in ice without affecting its timekeeping qualities to the slightest degree. They are proof against variations caused by railway travel, horseback riding, automobile riding or any of the many jolts and jars and bangs of every day use.

After we have regulated a South Bend Adjusted Watch to your person, we, and the makers, absolutely guarantee it to be a perfect time-keeper.
South Bend Watches are made in all standard sizes and styles at prices to suit any purse.

If you will call at any time, even if you do not intend to purchase a watch immediately, we will be pleased to show you our line of these watches and explain to you how, through the wonderful South Bend Balance Wheel, a South Bend
Watch adjusts itself to every temperature automatically.

WISCONSIN BOY WANTS TO BE World's Champion.

Evening Wisconsin—Fred Beall,
the champion wrestler of Wisconsin, and in fact of the United States, that is at his weight, 165 pounds, intends to become the champion of the world if perseverance will help the Badger to reach that end. Beall has not nearly every wrestler of note in the country outside of Frank Gotch, who is the present American champion, and he has yet to meet the man who can defeat him at the catch-as-catch-can. When Jenkins was in his glory, over a year ago in New York, he entered into a private match with Beall and the result was the worst contest that Jenkins ever got into.
He did not throw Beall, neither did Beall throw Jenkins, but when the Wisconsin boy tried to arrange a match for the championship Mr.
Jenkins politely declined to make the match. That was evidence enough to prove that Mr. Jenkins considered Beall the toughest proposition in the country, and would take no chances against him. Only recently Jenkins lost his title to Gotch, and now Beall has gone after Gotch for the championship, but there appears to be no hurry on the part of the present champion to accommodate Beall. Not only has Beall determined to become the American champion if possible, but he aspires to the championship of the world at the catch-as-catch-can style of wrestling. Accordingly he has sent a challenge to George Hackenschmidt, the world's champion through the London Sporting Life,
the contest to take place in England or America, as Mr. Hackenschmidt may choose. If the latter refuses to recognize Beall's claim to the match contest the Badger boy intends to visit England and endeavor to force Hackenschmidt into a match.
